CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Market Place, Mogador. Mogador, the chief town of Morocco, is possessed of one of the largest markets in the Moorish Empire. This market presents a most picturesque scene. Here can be found all classes of men—rich town Moors, fair Kabytes, Arabs, Riffs, Jews, and coal black negroes from the far South—all composing picture which the traveller finds it difficult to forget. Occasionally can be seen women, nearly completely veiled, riding on mules.
